

Introduction for Randy Pennington

(please read as printed and pause slightly after Tiger Woods and age 5 for laugh)

For over 20 years, Randy Pennington has helped many of the world's best-managed organizations build cultures focused on results, relationships, and accountability.

He is author of two books, Results Rule! Build a Culture that Blows the Competition Away, and On My Honor, I Will. Randy has also authored over 300 articles and several audio programs. He is a frequent resource for radio, television, and newspaper interviews. A dedicated volunteer leader, Randy has served as Chairman of the Board for the Texas Affiliate of the American Heart Association as well as the Board of Trustees for the National Speakers Association Foundation. Randy also serves as an adjunct instructor in the Edwin L. Cox Business Leadership Center at Southern Methodist University.

But, there's more you should know about Randy Pennington. His golf game has been compared to Tiger Woods . . . at age 5.

He's an ordinary guy with a unique perspective on life, work, and delivering results. Please welcome Randy Pennington.

Please say the following after Randy's presentation

Thank you, Randy, for an inspiring and thought provoking session.

I would like to remind you that Randy will be in the front of the room to answer your questions at the end of this session.

He has copies of his latest book available, and he is happy to sign them for you.
